Dear Parents,

Thank you to those parents who have notified us that they wish their child to participate in the Speech and Drama lessons, which would result in LAMDA examinations when pupils were ready.

The London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art ( LAMDA) is the oldest drama school in the UK and through it's examination system aims to:

- improve standards in communication through the spoken word.
- foster appreciation of literature and drama.
- support the creative, intellectual and social development of the individual as a whole.

If your child is interested in participating in the lessons and you have not already replied, please complete the slip at the foot of the page indicating if he/she would like individual or group lessons. Individual tuition will be £140 for 10 half hour lessons during each term. Group tuition will be £50 for 10 half hour lessons during the term.

Mrs Hine will be running the LAMDA courses. They will start next week and pupils that are interested will be given a timetable in due course. If your child does start these lessons, please note that a term's notice or a term's fees in lieu of notice is required before discontinuing these lessons. Lessons missed by pupils are payable in full. Lessons missed by teacher will be made up or credited.

Whilst we make every effort to avoid pupils missing their normal school lessons, unfortunately this is sometimes inevitable. Within the first few weeks of term your child should provide you with timetable for these lessons. If you do not receive it please contact Mrs Elliott who will supply you with a copy.

LAMDA tuition has a long tradition at Hemdean House and Mrs Hine is looking forward to playing her part in continuing the high standard of speech and drama tuition and the excellent LAMDA examination results achieved over the years.

Yours sincerely

Mrs J Harris
Headmistress
